Introducing A New, Easier Way To Give to Locust Hill

Locust Hill Baptist Church now offers online giving through PushPay. This is a convenience for those who prefer to give using this method. Locust Hill practices and encourages sound Biblical money management principles and we do not recommend using credit cards for online giving.

Online giving is secure and may be set up using an automatic bank draft from your personal bank account or debit card.

We understand that giving is a personal matter and God directs each of us to give in various ways. You are still free to give through our envelope system on Sundays.

Instructions for online giving can be found on the Giving page of our website. If you have any questions, please contact our Associate Pastor, Jason Farr.

Thank you so much for your dedication and commitment to Locust Hill Baptist Church as we seek to reach the Blue Ridge community in order to reach the world with the gospel.
